New Lecture Series

The Government Training Institute's Introduction to Terrorism is an 8 hour lecture course designed for first responders and their supervisors, giving them an insight to the methodology, mindset, and tactics used by terror organizations around the world.

The class is taught by GTI's Senior Terrorism Instructor, Peter N Spagnolo, who brings his real world experience from counter terrorism operations in Kuwait, Kenya, Oman and the United Arab Emirates. During his active duty, Mr. Spagnolo has made an extensive study of terrorism as it relates to the Middle East and, more importantly, the root causes of the discontent among many Middle Easterners that lead to terrorist acts.

Topics covered include:

GTI Instructor News

"Ensuring homeland safety, promoting the development of the Middle East and providing the highest level of law enforcement and military training instruction to GTI students."

GTI Sr. Terrorism & Military Instructor, Peter Spagnolo, has been accepted into the International Development PhD Program at University of Southern Mississippi. This challenging four year doctorate program will require intensive research overseen by professors who specialize in various subfields of political science and will further Instructor Spagnolo's ambitions to ensure homeland safety and the development of the Middle East while providing the highest level of law enforcement and military training instruction to GTI students everywhere.

Mr. Spagnolo is a Fellow of the Academy of Political Science (APS), a prestigious organization that promotes objective, scholarly analyses of domestic and foreign policy issues.
