GTI in the News

The Forgotten War Featured on KPVI

KPVI reporter Aaron Kunz attended GTI's training camp and prepared a special report that aired for five consecutive days on Idaho's news stations. It was the first time a member of the media was allowed to view the curriculum.

New Course Offered

Introduction to Terrorism

The Government Training Institute's Intro to Terrorism is an 8 hour lecture course designed for first responders and their supervisors and provides insight to the methodology, mindset and tactics used by terror organizations around the world.

The class is taught by GTI's Senior Terrorism Instructor, Peter N Spagnolo, who brings his real world experience from counter terrorism operations in Kuwait, Kenya, Oman and the United Arab Emirates. In this class, students learn how to:

- Expect the unexpected
- Recover from a strike
- Analyze strengths and weaknesses
- Identify terrorist traps for first responders

GTI's 30+ courses contain a cooperative curriculum base and ongoing research from the staff with 400 years of operational military and law enforcement experience. We look forward to hearing from you.

GTI's president Chadd Harbaugh and senior terrorism expert Peter Spagnolo recently co-authored Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century.

The book was edited by Professor James Forest who teaches at West Point's Combating Terrorism Center.

The publication consists of three volumes with an in-depth look at the role of state and local police departments play in combating terrorism along with an emphasis on SWAT.
